BAND STORY

"Artist Information Instrumentation Avion Solo Act Biography Ask AVION about his life in the music industry and his career plans and the upcoming artist will prove to you his dedication and pure love for music. "Its a religion that defines every breath I take. I live and breathe it." Born in Crown Heights, Brooklyn and raised on the mean streets of Liberty City Miami, Florida, a twenty-six year old Rap Artist emerges with a flow that clearly demands to be heard. Like water, one of four classical elements, this up & coming known as AVION is manifesting himself as a necessity in the future of the Hip Hop industry. Honing his skills as an MC at a young age, AVION recalls developing as a Rapper at thirteen while living with family in Miami. Transitioning from Brooklyn's fast-paced lifestyle, AVION recalls: "My whole life switched up when I was sent to Florida. Miami was supposed to steer me clear of trouble, but the conditions were worse than Crown Heights. My style altered when I was sent to Miami and since the environment was different, I adapted to it and was able to become more dynamic from these influences." In Junior High, AVION rhymed during his lunch break in the cafeteria which left listeners thirsty for more after school on the playground. As the crowd grew and demanded him, he realized his calling. With musical roots stemming from his Caribbean-borne pan orchestrated playing Parents, AVION states: "I know music. I can read music. I attack a different part of the beat that most Rappers wouldn't. My parents are from Trinidad. They made sure I learned about music whether I liked it or not. I have so many different influences pulling the words and influences pouring the words and beats from inside. It is these differences that separate me and demand my presence in Hip Hop" For High School, AVION arrived back into the NYC where he attended MLK in Manhattan. It was High School where AVION started pouring his efforts heavily into his music career with the support of his best friend Rohan Herbert. Between 2005 and now, AVION worked with many industry heavy weights including executives responsible for heavy record promotion tactics on well-known acts and artists such as The Notorious B.I.G., Lil' Kim, CamRon, and B2K to name a few. With seven to eight songs completed for his debut album, the flood of AVION is already being noticed, complimented by the likes of DJs; Funkmaster Flex, Kay Slay, DJ Enuff, and Q45 of BET's Rap City. He is currently in the studio with Grammy-Award winning Music Producers; Rockwilder, Deric "D-Dot" Angelettie (responsible for Bad Boy hits like The Notorious B.I.G.'s Hypnotize, Benjamins (Puff Daddy), Whoa (Black Rob)), and Red Spyda. With the debut album tentatively titled, I AM AVION, AVION's singles, C.O.D. (Cash On Delivery), The Avion Song, Here I Go (produced by Deric "D-Dot" Angelettie), and When it all goes down feat. Bone Crusher are already gratifying the ears of radio listeners in select markets and are being serviced to record pools across the nation. The 27 year old has entered a partnership to release his debut album, I AM AVION under his own imprint Waterworks Entertainment as CEO. With energy and a positive attitude like no other, AVION's lyrics command the respect and attention of Hip Hop listeners. When he's not in the studio soaking up beats, AVION enjoys playing basketball and watching a good DVD. Stating his musical influences as the business savvy Ice Cube for his longevity and hard work, AVION additionally accredits Petey Pablo's energy as an inspiration to his style energy as an inspiration to his style as well. "This business is all about relationships and associations that depend on the moves you make." Following his own words, AVION's collaboration with the artist Bone Crusher will soon demonstrate what raw talent combined with established artists can create. Discography C.O.D. (Cash On Delivery) is already gratifying the ears of radio listeners. Links <http://myspace.com/iamavion> www.quietmoneyworld.com "
