BAND STORY

"She made her splash onto the music scene when she was 15, on Broadway. At 16, she won the National Junior Star Search competition. She has performed with luminary personalites such as Prince, Belinda Carlisle, David Cassidy and Savage Garden. Now, E.J. Dease is breaking out with her style, releasing her first single " I Know" nationwide. " I Know" is a radio friendly upbeat song that has captured the ears of over 125 music programmers in its first 30 day of being released. She will be opening for country super star Doug Stone at the 100.9 Fun Farm Jamboree in Tennessee with her back up band, which includes guitarist Dean Hall and keyboard player Bill Wence. Influenced by Performers such as Dolly Parton, Sara Evens, Tanya Tucker, Patsy Cline, Loretta Lynn, Tammy Wynette, Patty Loveless, Sheryl Crow, Alison Krauss, Dwight Yoakam, E.J. Dease brings forth a contemporary country sound with a wide pop appeal, without the vocal acrobatics and complications so commonplace in today's pop music. Her sound is soulful and genuine, with a timeless simplicity all its own. "I really cherish hearing the melody of a song. I like to walk away after hearing a song and have it memorized after only one listen." Hailing from Pennsylvania, E.J. Dease is poised to leave her mark in Country music, the same way she left her indelible mark in music's history."
