

Jitu tha Jugganot

BAND STORY

"Jitu " tha Jugganot" - Microphone Controller, Mild Sauce Rapper Decomposer What does it mean to be a " legend?" Flashback to Chicago, 1991; a group called Ten Tray gave Chicago what it needed. An emcee emerged representing Chicago both local and national level. This emcee came with a message that inspired a generation of cats to step their game up. Flash forward to 2005, with hip-hop in mortal danger, the legend has returned." Jitu" is an African name given to him in 1995 meaning, " A giant among men" Not only is Jitu known for his talent in the school of hip hop, he is a youth program coordinator and community organizer on the south side of Chicago. He swarmed the game in 2002, entering battles and open mics. Leaving crowds in a state of disbelief, Jitu has humbled emcees all over the country, blending a once in a lifetime voice with an expansive vocabulary and ferocious delivery. On the underground, many call him the best they have ever heard!

Accomplishments" 1986 - Winner of " Battle of Chicago Rappers" at El Rukin Fort" 1991 - With group Ten Tray, signed to Smash Polygram records to become the first rap act in Chicago on a major label." 1992 - Appeared on Rap City, The Box and Yo! MTV Rap." 1992 - Song, " Ain' t Nothin' Like a Sister" was number one song in Las Vegas region and other west coast markets for 4-9 weeks" 2003 - Winner-" Battle of the Iron Mic," 4 Time Champion-Emcee Battle @ Wild Hare, Winner-1st Annual Kool Mix Emcee Battle, 3 Time Champion-Microphone War @ Subterranean

" 2004 - Joined and helped develop veteran hip-hop alliance " FIGHT CLUB"

STATS

Visits	Plays
333	607
Streams	Downloads
607	0

Featured Songs

- 1 Our Story Rap
- 2 Delivery Rap

For additional information please contact us
©2012 4Spotlight