

Kathi Kowski

BAND STORY

"Ros Wilting features Kathi Kowski on guitar/voice and Ringo Mortis on drums. Their music could officially be classified as guitar driven adult-indie-rock-pop, but whatever the category, their song portfolio is filled with well-written rock/pop gems! Kathi and Ringo have been writing and performing together since their first project, Baltimore band Mommi Im Scared. MIS was a successful true-indie band and garnered attention up and down the east coast based on the unique songs of Kathi and Ringo and exciting live shows. They received local and regional press coverage and airplay on many college stations leading to top ten charting on the CMJ. Ros Wilting is currently completing their first release and booking local and regional shows. www.kathikowski.com www.myspace.com/kathikowski "
