

Movin Melvin Brown

BAND STORY

"Movin' Melvin Brown Described as "The Last of The Great Song & Dance Men", in the 70's -80's Melvin had a show band called "Movin, Soothin & Stone Funk Band" which intensively performed throughout the U.S. and Canada. He shared the stage with Stevie Wonder, James Brown, BB King, Smokey Robinson and the movie set with Willie Nelson. He has opened for the Four Tops in Las Vegas, and for Harry Connick Jr. on his Australian tour of 1997. Melvin's hit song "Loves Stormy Weather" has been re-discovered on the charts in London UK, on JazzFM Radio. He has been featured on TV, Radio and newspapers worldwide, including BBC, CNN, ABC, also at Oprah Winfrey's party for Maya Angelou. His latest grand venture is to spread Love and Togetherness through the "I Love You Day". Each year he does a World Concert in a different location to bring people together to say "I Love You". The first "I Love You Day" Concert was on 2.02.2002 in Sydney, then Canary Islands, Rome, Malta, Dubai. (www.iloveyouday.com, www.movinmelvin.com). "
