

OPUS-1

BAND STORY

" â€œHell, I wont excel. I will fail as expected. This decrepit life of mine: I canâ€™t fathom ever having peace of mind.â€ This quote from the song â€œFailureâ€ , off of Opus-1â€™s debut â€œFace The Factâ€ , is the essence of who Opus is as an artist. Opus-1â€™s intelligence combined with his thought provoking, introspective style can be attributed to his dedication to the true essence of hip hop. With over 20 years of experience as not only an MC, but an accomplished producer and engineer as well, Opus brings an attention to musical detail rarely found in hip-hop today. As an MC he provides a dense lyrical flow, complicated metaphors, and meaningful lyrics that often contain double meanings. On the production side of things Opus provides soundscapes that create a mood and take the listener beyond merely listening but to experiencing his music. As an artist Opus brings honesty: creating music so down to earth itâ€™s difficult to not be able to relate to. In addition to â€œFace The Factâ€ Opus has recently contributed significantly to the album â€œDrew Presents The Dark Ages Featuring Opus-1â€ . In the beginning there was â€œFace The Factâ€ . This album is the culmination of living the hard knock life. â€œFace The Factâ€ is unique due to the diversity displayed both lyrically and musically. â€œFace The Factâ€ goes from deep lyrical content to club bangers and makes every stop in between. Standouts from the release are â€œFailureâ€ , the smash â€œMashadenaâ€ , and â€œNo Loveâ€ . Next Opus worked on â€œThe Dark Agesâ€ with long time collaborator Drew. Where â€œFace The Factâ€ thrived on

... diversity "The Dark Ages" is hardcore hip-hop under a magnifying glass. "The Dark Ages" presents Opus still providing the quality lyricism he's known for, but in a much more blunt fashion. The result is an album that ranks up there with the best of them while still remaining true to Opus-1's aesthetic. If not already enough, Opus went on to contribute to "Up In Flames Presented By Westbound Media". The album shows Opus being a lot more direct with his interpretation of the world. Musically this record goes to a place hip-hop has never been and Opus goes there with it? Opus is currently in the studio working on his next album "The Sin Say". So far the music and lyrics for this album have Opus going even deeper into the hearts of men. The direction of "The Sin Say" is taking hardcore to a new plateau. The album deals with the issues of fear, pain, and sanity in a way so truthful and honestly that hip-hop may not be prepared! "
