

The C Elliot Project

BAND STORY

"So, anyway, this is a little about who I am. This is not your "I wanna be a star or wanna make you think I'm a star" artist bio. It's real. Born in Hawaii. Raised in Montana. I attended UNLV and after spending lots of money I ended up with three degrees - BSW, MSW and JD. The law really interested me at one point in my life but currently is not "the big thing" for me. I haven't taken the bar exam yet but probably will in the near future. Not really motivated to study for it. But still, oil law and Riparian water rights -- who couldn't get their juices flowing for that subject matter, eh?! I have a great career in the profession of health care. I have been at the same company, in the same position, for over a decade because I find it rewarding (most of the time) and it's a fantastic company to work for -- yeah, really, it is. I enjoy writing songs, recording and singing as a therapeutic outlet. Deep, huh? I think that's what makes it cool for me -- no pressure -- just flow. My wife, Michelle ("...you complete me...") thinks I'm cool or at least she makes me think that she thinks I'm cool which is cool. Actually, I'm kind of a mommas boy (blame it on my mother) and Michelle lets me get away with quite a bit when it comes to this little hobby of mine. So, for now, where do I see this music thing going? I am really enjoying the "success" that I have achieved so far. The internet and the way music can now be promoted via this medium has really changed the playing field. I think that it is fantastic for artists like myself that love to create and share their art with others at home and abroad. I plan to perform live on a few occasions with friends that I network with here on MySpace and those I currently work with. Primarily intimate acoustic sets with a primarily intimate acoustic set but I am entertaining thoughts about an annual full band performance that would be held here in Vegas probably with another band to raise awareness for a charity or cause. Still thinking about it. Would love to hear your thoughts as well. So, that's pretty much it on the surface. Stop by www.MySpace.com/TheCElliottProject on occasion for updates and what not and don't be shy about sending me a message. I hope you enjoy the music. Peace ~~~"
