BAND STORY

"Thanks for checking out my tunes. What I am is a songwriter. What I'm not is a very good musician, and certainly not a performer. Most of the songs on my page will be performed by outsourced demo companies I have grown to trust, with explicit instructions from me on how I want them produced. Make no mistake, these are my songs, lyrics and music--I've just hired better musicians and often singers to polish them for your listening enjoyment. I've a 56 year old dude with a family and 4 almost grown children, a wife who is the best, and live in San Jose, California. I started writing music about 4 years ago, have allot to learn, but isn't that what life's all about?"
