

Joe Russell

BAND STORY

"Joe Russell is excited about his debut CD, "I Give Him All The Praise." Produced by Greg Minnick. He wrote all of the songs on this CD except the remake of his latest single release, "Ain't No Stoppin' Us Now." He emphasizes that he wants to bring Jesus Christ back to the forefront, to the center of ministry. Joe Russell grew up in Miami, Florida where he was surrounded by music from blues to gospel, imitating singers and groups on street corners with friends. He joined the chorus at Jackson High School which provided him the opportunity to perform. He formed a group called "The Debonairs" and appeared in shows throughout South Florida. As Joe became an adult, he was featured in different professional groups and bands before deciding to go back to his calling. He has released R & B singles and Christmas music. He has kept his passion of writing and singing and is always taking advantage of the moments' inspiration. He began working on his CD with internationally known producer and engineer, Greg Minnick who produced and mixed the CD from Levelblu Music Productions. This musical combination allowed them to target specific markets of the gospel industry. "Joe Russell's music is inspiring, current sounding and deserves serious attention." ...LMP. "Russell's music has never been confined to any one artistic genre". "Joe believes that nothing is impossible to those who believe, and that nothing is unattainable with God in your life". "It does not take great eloquence when speaking about Christ. I'll spread His Word in song forever." .. Joe Russell"
