

Kill Joy

BAND STORY

"Killjoy was formed in march of 1997. They began playing mostly Nirvana songs, later incorporating their own original material. Playing two World Festivals, multiple CD release parties for Sam Goody's, and a live Radio Broadcast on 105.3fm in Manchester. They quickly developed an impressive fan base in their hometown of Corbin, Kentucky and the surrounding cities (Richmond, Lexington, London, ect.). Their songs have been featured on 103.3fm in Lexington and on the soundtrack for the independent film "Road Rash". Killjoy also has a regular rotation on a Southern California based radio station, "The Punk Rock Demonstration". In Early 2002, they disbanded for 3 1/2 years as their bass player pursued a carreer in the U.S. Navy. It was during his time in the Navy when he met their current Lead Guitarist. Killjoy is currently playing in the Long Beach area, while also finishing their 5th independently released album. "
